Professor David Robie, an independent journalist, media campaigner and educator from AUT University, distils his lessons from 35 years of working in the Asia-Pacific region.

Covering environmental challenges, coups, the nuclear-free and independent Pacific movement and civil rights, as well as the many barriers journalists face, his book, Don't Spoil My Beautiful Face, reveals many of the hidden stories from these island nations.

Foreword by Kalafi Moala

Launched by TVNZ Pacific affairs correspondent Barbara Dreaver

MC Dr Steven Ratuva, president of the Pacific Islands Political Studies Association (PIPSA)

Hosted by AUT's Design and Creative Technologies Faculty.
